REMEMBERING 50 years of the Kansas Mennonite Relief Sale

From Chairman Rod Chrystie's Report after the 2010 sale: "As I take a minute to reflect on items noteworthy of this report, I recognize the challenge of coming away with the feeling that things went well, really that things went Very well, and that we enjoyed a pretty 'normal' Relief Sale.
But when I look at the website and see the theme of 'Offering Hope to a world in need' and when I consider the countless hours so many of you gave to make the Sale possible, it is anything but 'normal'. Taking time off of work and making the Sale your family project is not 'normal'. Working together with people from all over, hauling in just about everything we need until the buildings are full and ready for people isn't 'normal'.
Pouring yourselves into doing what you can to be part of the solution - helping feed, clothe, and care for people you will likely never see and never know—to offer Hope—is strikingly abnormal in our day and age.
Your efforts are noticed, are meaningful, do make a difference and are appreciated!" All in the name of Christ.
